Obituary

Damon Michael Broadnax entered the world on October 29th, 1974, in Washington DC, born to proud parents Wayne and Bernadette Broadnax. Sadly, at the age of 48, he passed away on September 17th, 2023.

Damon received his education from the Prince Georges County school system and went on to receive his GED in 2000. Later in life, he reaffirmed his faith in Jesus Christ and was baptized, responding to a call of salvation.

One of Damon's passions in life was sports, especially boxing, basketball, fishing, and, above all, football. When the Washington Commanders played football, you could count on Damon to talk trash in support of his team. He loved spending time with both sides of his family, including the Broadnax/Cornish/Corley clan and his bonus family, the Freemans.

At the time of his passing, Damon was thriving in his career with the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission (WSSC) for over 16 years. Additionally, he had become a proud homeowner in 2016 and welcomed his son Lil Damon, affectionately known as LD, into the world with CaHarmoni.

Damon, who was preceded in death by his father Wayne Broadnax and his grandparents Thomas Broadnax, Elaine Runnells, Joseph Cornish, and Vienna Dudley. However, we are comforted that he leaves behind a precious legacy in his son, Damon Broadnax Jr., his mother Bernadette Broadnax, his sister Dionne (Osborne) Spriggs, his brother Joseph Broadnax, his nephews James Broadnax, Deoz'A, JaQuan, and Demario Spriggs, as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends, who will always cherish his memory.

My Brother From Another Mother

You left without warning. My heart aches to learn that you are no longer with us, but I am happy that you are in heaven with the Lord.

I miss you more than I can say. The times we shared were some of the best of my life and I cherish each memory. You left behind Little Damon and your best friend's kids, whom you loved as your own.

We have an unbreakable bond that only a lifetime of love and memories can create. No matter how far apart we may be in this world, nothing will ever break us apart. I will always carry you in my heart.

I love you, bro!

Dad ,
I Love You
Daddy So
Much and God.

I Hope You
In Heaven.

Lil Damon (6
Years Old)
