Memories Of You Dad

It's been the hardest thing to lose you

You meant so much to me

But you are in my heart Dad And that's where you'll always be I know that Heaven called you But I wish you could have stayed

At least the memories I have of you

They will never fade I did not want to lose you

But you did not go alone Because a part of me went with you

When Heaven called you home

So just remember one thing

We are not apart You're with me in my memories

And in my broken heart

-Tosha

Heavenly Father, on this day I remember my father who has passed on. I thank you for my time with him and am grateful for all the love he provided. As I look back on his life, I remember the joy he brought to me and the countless ways he showed his love. Give me the strength to continue on Amen

EULOGY

John Holbrook Jr was born on June 19, 1963 in Washington DC to John Holbrook Sr and Annie Mae Holbrook. John was raised in Washington DC and attended DC public schools up until high school where he attended Bladensburg High School. John was a star on the basketball court and always a hard worker. After high school John went on to receive a trade in construction. John worked as a construction worker for many years. John's love and passion for cooking is what landed him a career as a chef. John was a chef at the US Senate Building for 16 years. John jokes kept everyone laughing and his smooth ways kept the woman around. If John said he had your back he had it. This turned friends into family. John's love for his family was unconditional.

In 2004 John met his bestfriend and love of his life Carol who he remained with until his death. On January 25th 2024 at the age of 60 the Lord called his son home. John leaves behind his children LaToya, LaTosha, and Isaiah. His siblings Patricia, Nadine, Alexander, Darlene, Stephanie, Angela. His grandchildren Jordan, Makayla, Jayda, Macy, Autumn, Jackson, and Lotus. His Aunts Frances and Jacqueline and his Uncle Prince. John also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, great-nephews & nieces, family, friends, and associates. Preceded him in death includes John Holbrook Sr. (father), Annie Mae(mother), John Holbrook III(son), Wanda(sister), David(brother), Larry(nephew).

To My Soulmate, Partner , and BestFriend!

Sometimes it's hard to Find words to tell you How much you mean to me.

If I did anything right In my life, it was when I gave my heart to you!

You are my soulmate, my husband, my everything.

*I love you always and forever
-Carol*

Dear Brother Your Memory Will Never Fade

*My dear Brother now that you are gone You're no longer here to share
The bond of love and care.
Yet, somehow something tells me
You are watching over me
Now that from worldly cares
You finally are free
I miss you so very much
And my tears I can not hide
Yet within my heart, I fell
You are always by my side.
Ever since you went away
Life has never been the same
Yet, it comforts me to know
That one day we'll meet again.
