Memories

Life can never stay the same
No matter how we try
Our hands can never stop
The clock of life from ticking by
But love remains, unchanging
In the care of sorrowing hearts
For as the love of life is stilled
The love of memory starts

In Loving Memory

Lloyd Sylvester Corley, Sr.

Lloyd Sylvester Corley, Sr. (affectionately known as "PeeWee") was born to the late Floyd and Gilberta (Evans) Corley on July 11, 1956. He accepted Christ at an early age. Lloyd received his public education from Washington, D.C. public schools.

By the 1970s, not only was Lloyd a husband and father, but he also served his country by enlisting in the United States Army. Lloyd was a member of the 82nd Engineer Battalion and was an expert with the M-16 rifle in Bamberg, Germany. Lloyd completed his service to his country as a Sergeant.

An avid traveler, Lloyd resided in various states and enjoyed driving 18-wheelers and doing long hauls with his cousin, Thomas "Dinky" Atkinson. Lloyd was also a great artist and loved drawing portraits of his family and animals. In his latter years, Lloyd relocated to Texas where he lived life to the fullest. Lloyd joined the Anointed Temple Apostolic Pentecostal Fellowship of Churches, under the auspices of Bishop Willie L. McNeal. Lloyd later became a member the Greater Zion Temple Church of God in Christ under the auspices of Bishop Shelton C. Rhodes.

Lloyd was blessed with three children, Stacy Duane (Sheon) Corley, Lloyd S. Corley, Jr. and La Shandra D'Ann Corley. Lloyd's children blessed him with seven grandchildren: Azaria, Derrick, Derrian, Syris, James, Elysia and A'Zora, and one-great grandchild: Alijah.

On Saturday, March 16, 2024, Lloyd surrendered to the call of the Lord. He is preceded in death by his parents, his siblings Lionel Evans, Sr., Crystal Rasheed and Everett Corley, and his son, Lloyd S. Corley, Jr.

Lloyd leaves to cherish an abundance of memories for the love of his life, Doris Corley, his children, two sisters Mischelle Corley and Renee Corley, a very special brother-in-law, Raymond Strickland, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.
